60 MINUTES

- 12/06/98 "A Very Special Teacher"- an interview with 21-year-old Corey Arthur, the convicted murderer of 31-year-old New York City public school teacher Jonathan Levin, the son of Time-Warner CEO Gerald Levin. Arthur, now at Rikers Island awaiting sentencing, still professes love for his former teacher but says that the quality he most admired in Levin -- his involvement in students' lives -- put the teacher in grave danger. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
"The Silent Service"- the Cold War conducted under the seas by U.S. and Soviet submarines -- some loaded with nuclear missiles -- is still such a top secret affair that people who served cannot talk about much of it. Includes interviews with John Craven, former chief scientist with the U.S. Navy; former Russian Admiral Lev Chernavin; and with Sherry Sontag and Christopher Drew authors of Blind Man's Bluff. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)
"Grigori Loutchansky"- although the U.S. State Department was aware of Grigori Loutchansky's link to organized crime, the Russian businessman managed not only to enter the U.S. but to meet the President. Critics of the Clinton Administration claim that he was not the only foreign criminal invited to a DNC fundraiser. Includes an interview with Loutchansky, who claims that he is a legitimate businessman. (Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Kevorkian" - Andy's opinion of Dr. Kevorkian
- 12/13/98 "It's The People, Stupid!"- examines President Clinton's reliance on information gained from polls. Includes interviews with Frank Luntz, a top Republican pollster; Dick Morris, former Clinton strategist; Professor Larry Sabato, a political scientist at the University of Virginia; and Doug Schoen, the President's current pollster. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy)
"Daniel Barenboim"- an interview with pianist/conductor Daniel Barenboim. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)
"Helicopter Down"- when four servicemen were killed in a Blackhawk helicopter crash, the family of Robert Rogers, a crew member, learned that the aircraft's engine had a faulty part that had caused 150 previous engine failures -- a fact that the Army had known for a decade. An Army spokesman still claims that the men died because of pilot error. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Annoying Phone Calls" - Andy has an idea on how to handle sales calls
Don Hewitt Statement: 60 MINUTES Executive Producer Don Hewitt apologizes for a segment ("The Mule" OAD: 06/01/97) which was based on false claims
- 12/20/98 "Charlton Heston"- an interview with actor Charlton Heston, currently the head of the conservative National Rifle Association. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Marti Galovic Palmer)
"50,000 White Farmers"- in the four years since the end of white rule in South Africa, nearly 600 white farmers have been murdered. Many farmers believe that the murders are part of an organized conspiracy to drive them from the land. The South African Government disagrees, claiming that the farmers live in isolated areas and have guns and vehicles that tempt thieves. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber)
"George Soros"- an interview with financier George Soros, accused by critics of ruining the economy of several nations, including Malaysia, whose Prime Minister called him a criminal. But George Soros is a hero in Haiti for giving that poor country some of the huge profits he made in other parts of the world. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Christmas Story" - unwrapping packages

12/27/98 "Cooking the Books?"- Jim Alderson, an accountant at a small hospital in Whitefish, Montana sued Columbia HCA, the world's largest hospital corporation, under the terms of the False Claims Act, a Civil War era law which allows private citizens to sue people who have defrauded the U.S. Government and to share in any resulting awards. Alderson's well documented evidence prompted the Justice Department to launch an investigation and finally to join in his law suit (Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
"Praising Caesar"- an interview with gospel singer Shirley Caesar. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
"Who Killed Louis Gladu?"- David Alexander and Harry Granger, two Louisiana men, have served 22 years in prison for robbery and murder. Steve Woodring, a sheriff's deputy at the time of the crime, is convinced that the men are innocent. Jim McCloskey, executive director of Centurion Ministries, an organization that investigates cases of alleged wrongful imprisonment, has been appealing for a new trial for two years but so far the request has been denied. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)
Andy Rooney Topic: "After Christmas" - Andy receives a Christmas card from President Clinton
